

Kwaji:Yä Knögé Sovereign Site — Full Structure

1. Public Site (Ceremonial & Informational)

- Home:
Hero declaration, six modules, link to Tribunal.
- Charter:
Downloadable Charter PDF, ceremonial framing, Council notes.
- Trust:
Transparency page with monthly ledger reports, scholarship routing, downloadable Trust documents.
- Programs:
Overview of Wakále Amotī modules + Sister Sanctuary.
- Visit:
Seasonal gatherings, enrolment steps, covenant reminder.
- News/Events:
Announcements, seasonal letters, cultural updates.
- About:
Nation history, leadership, crest, seals.
- Contact Legal:
Ministry of Legal Affairs, Council Secretary, privacy compliance.

2. Enrolment System (Public → Council Workflow)

- Application Portal:
  - Form fields: lineage statement, program track, needs, scholarship request, emergency contact, uploads.
  - Validation: email format, required lineage statement, file size/type limits.
- Workflow:
  - Auto-acknowledge → Pre-screen → Ministry Legal verification → Council review → Decision → Recognition rite → Registration → Trust ledger update.
- Scholarship Routing:
Automatic webhook to Sanctum Trust inbox + Practitioner Coordinator.
- Sister Sanctuary:
Eligibility enforced by traditional gender status, with Council protocols for housing and ceremonial access.
- Appeals:
30-day window → Council panel → Elder Tribunal escalation if unresolved.

3. Member Portal (Secure, Role-Based)

- Nationals vs Enrolled Members:
  - Nationals: lineage recognition only.
  - Enrolled Members: full enrolment with service hours, allowances.
- Dashboards:
  - Nationals: lineage records, Charter access.
  - Enrolled Members: allowances, service hours, documents.
  - Trustees/Elders: Trust ledger, Council packets, ceremonial notes.
- Features:
  - MFA for sensitive roles.

- Encrypted storage of financial statements, incident logs.
- Monthly allowance/scholarship reports.
- Community engagement forums, cultural media integration.

4. Technical & Security

- Payments:
Stripe hosted checkout.
- Email:
SendGrid transactional.
- Analytics:
GA4 + Tag Manager cross-domain.
- SSO:
OAuth2 + MFA for Trustees/Finance.
- Security Controls:
HTTPS, HSTS, CSP, secure cookies, encryption at rest, audit logging.
- Resilience:
Daily backups, hosting redundancy, failover testing, incident response playbook.

5. Growth & Engagement

- Scaling Protocols:
Membership thresholds trigger infrastructure expansion + Council review.
- Community Engagement:
Forums, feedback loops, cultural media integration.
- KPIs:
Technical analytics + cultural participation metrics.
- Multilingual Support:
English + Indigenous language modules.

Here's a polished Homepage full copy that unifies all the sovereign site sections — Programs, Visit, Tribunal, Charter, Trust, About, and News — into one flowing ceremonial introduction:

Kwaji:Yä Knögé Nation — Sovereign Homepage

Hero Declaration

“We are the Kwaji:Yä Knögé Nation. Six workshops held by hand, each circle small and sacred. One Tribunal, carried to the world as a sovereign decree. A covenant lived in practice, sealed in resilience.”

Programs — Circles of Covenant

Discover Wakále Amotī, six fellowship modules rooted in land, seed, rising, dwelling, care, and guardianship. Explore Sister Sanctuary — short residential cohorts for women and women-kin, offering restoration and rising. CTA: [Explore Programs]

Visit — Walking the Path

Visiting is covenantal participation, not tourism. Guests walk five steps: Listen → Share → Connect → Confirm → Arrive. Seasonal gatherings align with nature's rhythm, each circle a doorway into fellowship. CTA: [Plan Your Visit]

Tribunal — Sovereign Decree

The Tribunal of the Primordial Peoples of Amaruca stands as a global petition for justice, recognition, and restoration. Visitors may read the full case, sign the Record of Justice, and join the covenant of redress. CTA: [Enter the Tribunal]

Charter — The Covenant in Writing

The Charter is the Nation's living covenant, binding people to land and lineage. Download the Charter PDF, review governance structures, and witness the ceremonial clauses of restoration. CTA: [Read the Charter]

Trust & Transparency — The Sanctum Ledger

The Trust is stewardship, not finance. Monthly ledger reports, allowance calculations, and scholarship routing are published for transparency. CTA: [View Trust Reports]

About — Our Story

Learn the Nation's origins, crest, lineage, and High Council. Discover the covenantal symbols and the guardianship of Elders and Trustees. CTA: [Meet the Nation]

News & Events — Living Rhythm

Seasonal letters, Council announcements, and cultural updates keep the covenant alive. Gatherings and cultural media are shared as threads in the rhythm of sovereignty. CTA: [Read News & Events]

Member Portal — Entering the Covenant

Nationals, Enrolled Members, Elders, and Trustees each have role-based dashboards. Allowances, service hours, Trust reports, and Council packets are securely accessed with MFA. CTA: [Enter Member Portal]

Shared Covenant Reminder

“This site is not a platform — it is a sanctuary. Every page, every program, every decree is a thread in the covenant of sovereignty. Together, we weave resilience for the next seven generations.”

Footer

- Quick links: Programs | Visit | Tribunal | Charter | Trust | About | News | Member Portal | Contact Legal
- Crest watermark + Council seal
- Closing line: “Kwaji:Yä Knögé Nation — Sovereignty in covenant, resilience in practice.”

Here’s a complete site-wide navigation structure that unifies the homepage and all subpages, ensuring usability across desktop and mobile while keeping the ceremonial voice intact:

Sovereign Navigation Structure

Top Menu (Desktop)

- Home
- Programs
(dropdown)
  - Wakále Amotí Modules
  - Sister Sanctuary
- Visit
- Tribunal
- Charter
- Trust
- About
- News & Events
- Member Portal
- Contact & Legal

Footer Links (Universal)

- Charter | Trust | Programs | Visit | Tribunal | About | News | Member Portal | Contact Legal
- Crest watermark + Council seal
- Closing line: “Kwaji:Yä Knögé Nation — Sovereignty in covenant, resilience in practice.”

Mobile View Flow

- Hamburger Menu:
Collapsible drawer with all top menu items.
- Quick Access Buttons (always visible):
  - [Apply Now] → Enrolment form
  - [Sign Tribunal] → Petition form

- [Enter Portal] → Member login
- Footer:
Compact crest + Council seal, quick links stacked vertically.

Navigation Principles

- Ceremonial Continuity:
Crest watermark anchors both header and footer.
- Role-Based Access:
Public pages visible to all; Member Portal requires login.
- Accessibility:
WCAG AA compliance, large touch targets, multilingual toggle (English + Indigenous).
- Consistency:
Every page closes with the covenantal reminder line.

Enrolment Page (Public-Facing Flow)

Hero Banner: “Begin Your Journey — Enrolment as Covenant.” Steps: Listen → Share → Connect → Confirm → Arrive. Application Form: Full name, email, lineage statement, program track, needs, scholarship request. CTA: [Begin Your Journey] Note: “Applications are read with care. There are no automated approvals.” Seasonal Calendar: Linked directly to enrolment forms. Shared Covenant Reminder: Guests arrive as caretakers, not consumers.

This way, the site is complete and sovereign:

- Public pages for transparency and invitation.
- Enrolment workflows tied to Council governance.
- Secure Member Portal for Nationals, Enrolled Members, Trustees, Elders.
- Tribunal as a separate decree page, linked from the homepage.

Enrolment — Begin Your Journey

Hero Declaration

“Enrolment is not registration — it is covenant. Every guest is welcomed as family, not as a number. Your journey begins with a calling, and continues as a shared commitment.”

Walking the Path (Steps of Entry)

1. Listen
— Choose the gathering or module that speaks most deeply to you.

2. Share
— Complete a thoughtful application, telling us what has called you to this journey.
3. Connect
— Meet with our Admissions Circle in conversation to ensure balance and readiness.
4. Confirm
— Secure your place with a deposit. Scholarships available through the Sanctum Tribal Trust.
5. Arrive
— Receive your Welcome Guide, preparation materials, and travel details before stepping onto the land.

Application Form

Header: “Begin Your Journey” Fields:

- Full Name
- Email Address
- Phone
- Country/Tribe
- Workshop or Program Track (including Sister Sanctuary options)
- Lineage Statement (for Nationals)
- Statement: “What has called you to this journey?”
- Needs & Scholarship Request
- Emergency Contact
- File Uploads (≤10 MB, PDF/DOC/JPG/PNG)

CTA Button: [Submit Application]

Note: “Applications are read with care. There are no automated approvals. Each guest is considered individually to ensure gatherings remain balanced and aligned with the spirit of fellowship.”

Seasonal Gatherings Calendar

- Abunuhi Yáro (March 4–17)
— Medicinal plants, forest wisdom, traditional apothecary.
- Abaká Ifíbo (July 10–30)
— Earth architecture, natural building, community creation.
- Wākale Amotī (September 9–29)
— Complete fellowship experience.
- Híaro Yámoni (December 1–21)
— Sacred planting, seed stewardship.
- Tawari Yáro & Banarema Híama
— Announced as the land reveals their season.

Each calendar entry links directly to its enrolment form.

Our Shared Covenant

“When you enrol, you enter into covenant. We ask every guest to arrive with curiosity, humility, respect, and willingness to contribute. The experience is shaped not only by what you receive, but by what you bring.”

Footer

- Quick links: Charter | Trust | Programs | Tribunal | Contact Legal
- Crest watermark + Council seal
- Closing line: “Six workshops. One land. One Tribunal. A covenant carried in practice.”

Here’s a polished Member Portal copy that matches the sovereign site build specification and carries the same ceremonial voice as the homepage, enrolment, and Tribunal:

Member Portal — Entering the Covenant

Hero Declaration

“Membership is not access — it is recognition. The Kwaji:Yä Knögé Nation distinguishes between Nationals of lineage and Enrolled Members of covenant. Each dashboard is a doorway into responsibility, allowance, and service.”

Nationals (Lineage Recognition)

- Definition:
Those recognized by ancestral lineage.
- Dashboard Features:
  - Lineage records and Charter access.
  - Seasonal letters and cultural updates.
  - No service hours required, but participation welcomed.
- Ceremonial Note:
“Nationals carry the covenant by birthright, and their presence affirms continuity.”

Enrolled Members (Formal Covenant)

- Definition:
Nationals who complete the enrolment rite.
- Dashboard Features:
  - Allowance and scholarship reports.
  - Service hours tracking and contribution logs.
  - Access to Trust ledger summaries.
  - Downloadable Council packets and documents.
- Ceremonial Note:
“Enrolled Members carry the covenant by choice, binding lineage with service.”

Elders & Trustees (Council Access)

- Definition:
Guardians of law, finance, and ceremony.
- Dashboard Features:
  - Full Trust ledger reports.
  - Council packet automation and approvals.
  - Incident response logs (restricted).
  - Editorial governance for Charter and Trust updates.
- Ceremonial Note:
“Elders and Trustees carry the covenant by guardianship, ensuring resilience for generations.”

Security & Access

- Multi-factor authentication for sensitive roles.
- Encrypted storage of financial statements and ceremonial notes.
- Audit logs for all reads and edits.
- Role-based dashboards tested for mobile-first accessibility.

Shared Covenant Reminder

“Membership is not privilege — it is responsibility. Every role, whether National, Enrolled, Elder, or Trustee, is a thread in the covenant. Together, we weave resilience for the next seven generations.”

Footer

- Quick links: Charter | Trust | Programs | Tribunal | Privacy & Legal
- Crest watermark + Council seal
- Closing line: “One Nation. Many roles. One Covenant.”

Trust & Transparency — The Sanctum Ledger

Hero Declaration

“The Trust is not a bank. It is a covenant of stewardship, ensuring that every allowance, scholarship, and grant strengthens the land, the people, and the generations yet to come.”

Monthly Ledger Reports

- Downloadable PDFs:
Council-approved Trust reports published each month.
- Contents:
  - Member count and allowance calculations.
  - Scholarship routing and disbursement records.
  - Forest restoration and cultural program allocations.
- CTA:
[Download Latest Trust Report]

Allowances & Scholarships

- Eligibility:
Enrolled Members who complete service hours.
- Routing:
Scholarships prioritized for Indigenous and Caribbean participants, processed through Sanctum Tribal Trust.
- Transparency:
Each disbursement logged in the ledger, visible to members via the secure portal.

Governance & Oversight

- Council Protocols:
  - +10% change in member count triggers scenario report and Trustee sign-off.
  - Appeals escalated to Elder Tribunal if unresolved.
- Editorial Governance:
Charter and Trust updates require Council Secretary or Ministry Legal approval before publication.
- Financial Transparency:
Reports accessible to Nationals, Enrolled Members, Trustees, and Elders according to role.

Security & Resilience

- Encryption:
Sensitive records stored securely at rest.
- Access Control:
Role-based dashboards with MFA for Trustees and Finance.
- Audit Logs:
Every read and edit recorded for Council oversight.
- Resilience:
Daily backups, hosting redundancy, and disaster recovery protocols.

Shared Covenant Reminder

“The Trust is not a resource — it is a living covenant. Every allowance, every scholarship, every ledger entry is a thread in the fabric of sovereignty. Transparency is our promise to the next seven generations.”

Footer

- Quick links: Charter | Programs | Tribunal | Member Portal | Privacy & Legal
- Crest watermark + Council seal
- Closing line: “Sanctum Tribal Trust — Stewardship in covenant, resilience in practice.”

Charter — The Covenant in Writing

Hero Declaration

“The Charter is not policy. It is the living covenant of the Kwaji:Yä Knögé Nation, binding our people to the land, to each other, and to the generations yet to come.”

The Charter of the Nation

- Downloadable Charter PDF:
Council-approved, updated with editorial governance protocols.
- Contents:
  - Founding principles of sovereignty.
  - Governance structures and High Council membership.
  - Rights and responsibilities of Nationals and Enrolled Members.
  - Ceremonial language and cultural restoration clauses.
- CTA:
[Download Charter]

Trust & Governance Transparency

- Trust Reports:
Linked directly to the Transparency page.
- Council Protocols:
Decisions recorded and published for member review.
- Editorial Governance:
Updates require Council Secretary or Ministry Legal approval before publication.

Membership & Covenant

- Nationals:
Recognized by lineage.
- Enrolled Members:
Nationals completing enrolment and service.
- Elders & Trustees:
Guardians of law, finance, and ceremony.
- Ceremonial Note:
“Membership is not privilege — it is responsibility, woven into the Charter itself.”

Accessibility & Language

- Multilingual Support:
English + Indigenous language modules.
- WCAG AA Compliance:
Accessible to all members and guests.
- Cultural Continuity:
Charter published with ceremonial notes and translations for intergenerational learning.

Shared Covenant Reminder

“The Charter is not a document — it is a living covenant. Every clause, every signature, every seal is a promise to the next seven generations.”

Footer

- Quick links: Trust | Programs | Tribunal | Member Portal | Privacy & Legal
- Crest watermark + Council seal
- Closing line: “Kwaji:Yä Knögé Nation — Sovereignty in covenant, resilience in practice.”

Here’s a polished About Page copy that gives the Nation a strong identity presence on the public site, aligned with the Charter and Trust pages:

About — The Kwaji:Yä Knögé Nation

Hero Declaration

“We are not a project. We are a people. The Kwaji:Yä Knögé Nation is a sovereign covenant rooted in lineage, ceremony, and stewardship of ancestral land.”

Our Story

- Origins:
Founded in Saint Vincent, carried by ancestral lineage from Montréal to the Caribbean.
- Territory:
600 acres of rainforest, food forests, streams, and regenerative landscapes — Wakále Amotī.
- Purpose:
To restore Indigenous sovereignty, cultural continuity, and ecological balance.
- Guiding Principle:
“The land does not belong to us. We belong to the land.”

Crest & Symbols

- National Crest:
Embodying water, seed, and flame — the three pillars of covenant.
- Seal:
Used for Charter, Trust, and Tribunal declarations.

- Ceremonial Motifs:
Feathers, sacred geometry, and ancestral maps woven into site design.

High Council

- Council Members:
Frances Waithe, Marina Lampkin, Erasto Robertson, Vince Reid, Masani Defreitas, Joylyn Lampkin, Lennox Lampkin, Phillip A. Browne.
- Public Relations Officer:
Debra Woodley Thomas, Founder of Legacy Compass Collective.
- Council Protocols:
Decisions made in circle, guided by ceremony and covenant.

Lineage & Continuity

- Family Names:
Robertson, Lampkin, Hamilton, Francis, Moses, Bodan, Long, Skinner, Alexander.
- Ceremonial Note:
“Lineage is not ancestry alone — it is covenant carried forward through generations.”

Our Covenant

- Practice:
Six modules of fellowship — seed, rising, dwelling, care, guardianship, land.
- Justice:
Tribunal of the Primordial Peoples of Amaruca — a sovereign decree for redress.
- Community:
Nationals, Enrolled Members, Elders, Trustees — each role a thread in the covenant.

Shared Covenant Reminder

“We are the Kwaji:Yä Knögé Nation. Our sovereignty is not granted — it is remembered. Our covenant is not written — it is lived.”

Footer

- Quick links: Charter | Trust | Programs | Tribunal | Member Portal | Contact Legal
- Crest watermark + Council seal
- Closing line: “Kwaji:Yä Knögé Nation — Sovereignty in covenant, resilience in practice.”

Here’s a polished News & Events Page copy that gives the site a living rhythm of communication, aligned with the ceremonial voice of the Nation:

News & Events — The Living Rhythm

Hero Declaration

“Our covenant is not static. It breathes in seasons, letters, gatherings, and announcements. This page carries the living rhythm of the Kwaji:Yä Knögé Nation.”

Seasonal Letters

- Quarterly Correspondence:
Reflections from the land, stories from fellowship, Indigenous teachings, restoration updates, and community news.
- Promise:
No algorithms, no urgency — only meaningful correspondence when there is something worth sharing.
- CTA:
[Read the Latest Seasonal Letter]

Announcements

- Council Decrees:
Updates on Charter amendments, Trust transparency, and ceremonial governance.
- Programs & Modules:
New workshop invitations, Sister Sanctuary cohorts, and seasonal enrolment openings.
- Community Updates:
Cultural events, restoration milestones, and partnerships.

Events Calendar

- Gatherings:
Dates and details for Wakále Amotī modules and Sister Sanctuary programs.
- Community Activities:
Forums, cultural media releases, and intergenerational workshops.
- CTA:
[View Full Calendar]

Cultural Media

- Stories & Recordings:
Oral histories, music, ceremony, and intergenerational teachings.
- Visuals:
Photo essays of restoration, architecture, and fellowship circles.
- CTA:
[Explore Cultural Media]

Shared Covenant Reminder

“News is not spectacle — it is continuity. Events are not entertainment — they are covenant. Every announcement, every letter, every gathering is a thread in the living rhythm of sovereignty.”

Footer

- Quick links: Charter | Trust | Programs | Tribunal | Member Portal | Contact Legal
- Crest watermark + Council seal
- Closing line: “Kwaji:Yä Knögé Nation — Sovereignty in covenant, resilience in practice.”

Here’s a polished Contact & Legal Page copy that provides a clear, formal channel for communication while maintaining the ceremonial voice of the Nation:

Contact & Legal — Ministry of Correspondence

Hero Declaration

“Communication is covenant. Every message received is treated with care, every inquiry answered with respect, every legal matter carried with sovereignty.”

General Contact

- Email:
lhawahkan@gmail.com
- Phone:
+1 (784) 527-5568
- Address:
Calder Ridge Gap, Saint George, Saint Vincent & the Grenadines
- Office Hours:
Monday–Friday, 9 AM–5 PM AST

Ministry of Legal Affairs

- Council Secretary:
Oversees Charter and Trust editorial governance.
- Legal Correspondence:
All legal inquiries routed through the Ministry of Legal Affairs.
- Privacy & Compliance:
Adherence to national data protection standards and sovereign protocols.
- CTA:
[Submit Legal Inquiry]

Privacy & Terms

- Privacy Policy:
Council-approved, outlining data protection, member confidentiality, and sovereign resilience measures.
- Terms of Service:
Defines participation, enrolment, and member responsibilities.
- CTA:
[View Privacy Policy] | [View Terms of Service]

Incident & Appeals

- Incident Response:
Encrypted logs maintained for security events, overseen by Trustees and Elders.
- Appeals Process:
30-day appeal window → Council panel → Elder Tribunal escalation if unresolved.
- Disaster Recovery:
Daily backups, hosting redundancy, and failover testing.

Shared Covenant Reminder

“Contact is not transaction — it is relationship. Legal is not bureaucracy — it is sovereignty. Every inquiry, every appeal, every correspondence is a thread in the covenant of resilience.”

Footer

- Quick links: Charter | Trust | Programs | Tribunal | Member Portal | News & Events
- Crest watermark + Council seal
- Closing line: “Kwaji:Yä Knögé Nation — Sovereignty in covenant, resilience in practice.”

Here’s a polished Programs Page copy that presents Wakále Amotī modules alongside Sister Sanctuary, framed in the ceremonial voice of the Nation:

Programs — Circles of Covenant

Hero Declaration

“Programs are not courses. They are circles of covenant, each one a doorway into Indigenous wisdom, regenerative living, and personal transformation.”

Wakále Amotī — The Fellowship Modules

Module I — The Land (Covenant of Belonging) 600 acres of ancestral territory, rainforest, food forests, and streams. “The land does not belong to us. We belong to the land.”

Module II — Hiaro Yámoni (Covenant of the Seed) Sacred planting, seed stewardship, Edenic food, chinampa integration.

Module III — Wākale Amotī (Covenant of Rising) Initiation through the Five Pillars of Life, ceremony, and fellowship.

Module IV — Abaká Itíbo (Covenant of Dwelling) Earth architecture, bamboo and timber building, regenerative design.

Module V — Abunuhi Yáro (Covenant of Care) Medicinal plants, traditional apothecary, ancestral lifestyle practices.

Module VI — Tawari Yáro (Covenant of Guardianship) Discipline, self-defense, safe movement, community protection.

(Banarema Hiama will be revealed in its season as the land discloses its proper time.)

Sister Sanctuary — Return, Restore, Rise

Short residential cohorts for women and those recognized as women-kin.

- Options:
3-day, 5-day, 7-day integrated journeys.
- Focus:
Healing, restoration, and rising in community.
- Scholarships:
Offered through the Sanctum Tribal Trust.
- CTA:
[Apply for Sister Sanctuary]

Seasonal Gatherings

Each program follows the rhythms of nature, offering a different doorway into Indigenous knowledge and regenerative living.

- March — Abunuhi Yáro
- July — Abaká Itíbo
- September — Wākale Amotī
- December — Hiaro Yámoni
- Future — Tawari Yáro & Banarema Hiama

CTA: [View Calendar & Apply]

Shared Covenant Reminder

“Programs are not consumption — they are contribution. Every circle is shaped not only by what you receive, but by what you bring.”

Footer

- Quick links: Charter | Trust | Visit | Tribunal | Member Portal | Contact Legal
- Crest watermark + Council seal
- Closing line: “Kwaji:Yä Knögé Nation — Six programs, one covenant, one sovereign path.”

Here’s a polished Visit Page copy that flows seamlessly with Programs but emphasizes the guest experience:

Visit — Walking the Path

Hero Declaration

“To visit is not tourism. It is covenantal participation, a step into fellowship with the land, the people, and the sacred rhythm of the Kwaji:Yä Knögé Nation.”

Walking the Path — Five Steps of Arrival

- 1. Listen
— Hear the call of the land and choose your gathering.
- 2. Share
— Offer your story and intention through the enrolment form.
- 3. Connect
— Join in dialogue with our Admissions Circle to ensure readiness.
- 4. Confirm
— Secure your place with covenantal contribution or scholarship.
- 5. Arrive
— Step onto the land prepared, welcomed, and recognized.

Seasonal Gatherings

- March — Abunuhi Yáro (Covenant of Care)
Medicinal plants, ancestral apothecary, forest wisdom.
- July — Abaká Itíbo (Covenant of Dwelling)
Earth architecture, bamboo and timber building, regenerative design.
- September — Wākale Amotī (Covenant of Rising)
Complete fellowship experience, initiation through the Five Pillars of Life.
- December — Hiaro Yámoni (Covenant of the Seed)
Sacred planting, seed stewardship, Edenic food.
- Future — Tawari Yáro & Banarema Hiamá
Announced as the land reveals their season.

CTA: [View Calendar & Apply]

Guest Covenant

- Caretakers, Not Consumers:
Guests are welcomed as family, not as visitors.
- Shared Responsibility:
Each participant contributes to the circle through service, humility, and respect.
- Preparation:
Guests receive a Welcome Guide with cultural protocols, travel details, and ceremonial expectations.

Seasonal Letter

Quarterly correspondence from the land, carrying reflections, updates, and invitations. CTA: [Read the Latest Letter]

Shared Covenant Reminder

“Visiting is not escape — it is return. Every step onto the land is a step into covenant, carried with humility and gratitude.”

Footer

- Quick links: Charter | Trust | Programs | Tribunal | Member Portal | Contact Legal
- Crest watermark + Council seal
- Closing line: “Kwaji:Yä Knögé Nation — Six workshops, one land, one covenantal path.”